

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to acknowledge my gratitude to the Indian Army & the Indian Institute of Public Administration (IIPA) for providing me an opportunity to take up this study.

I must express my gratitude to my guide, Dr Manan Diwedi, under whose supervision this study was undertaken, for his incisive thoughts, for his the diligent & painstaking efforts in going through the multitude of rough drafts & in structuring of the dissertation & its presentation.

I am grateful to the Programme Director, Dr Suresh Mishra & to the Programme Co-Director, Dr Sheela Reddy, for a conducive, learning environment throughout the programme.

I also wish to thank the IIPA library staff who provided all help as & when asked for. I also had the full support of the APPPA Office Staff, who were happy to extend any assistance, at all times, cheerfully.

I must thank my wife, Snigdha, and my daughter, Sheenam, for persevering with me, as I attempted to complete the study and achieve closure, often at the cost of other competing priorities.
