

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I express my deepest gratitude to Dr. Aasha Kapur Mehta, Professor of Economics, Indian Institute of Public Administration, (IIPA) who agreed to supervise me in spite of her several other academic and professional commitments. She inspired and motivated me to achieve highest standards in my work. This feat was possible only because of her valuable guidance, scholarly inputs and consistent encouragements I received throughout the research work.

I would also express my gratitude to Course Directors Prof. Suresh Misra, and Dr. C. Sheela Reddy for their constant encouragement during the 40th APPPA course which has helped me to assimilate various streams of knowledge in the sphere of Public Administration,

I am also grateful to Dr. Keerty Nakray, Shri S Suresh Kumar, Joint Secretary, Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India for their very valuable insights, in improving manuscript and ideas and their overall commitment to cause of women safety. I am deeply thankful to Shri Akhilesh Kumar, Chief Statistical Officer (NCRB), Shri Bikramjeet Choudhry, Section Officer Ministry of Home Affairs, Shri. Rajender Singh Sekhawat, PA to DRISR in Ministry for providing me the requisite data and carrying out the statistical data analysis for my dissertation.

I would like to convey my gratitude and thanks to Ministry of Railways for nominating me to pursue the research in such an important area.

I want to convey my heartfelt thanks to my friends and the colleague of 40th APPPA Course who despite be under enormous work pressure enthused and inspired me.

My family deserves my sincere gratitude and appreciation especially my sons Vikramaditya Singh, Vijayant Singh and my niece Vasundhara for lending me her laptop without grudge and Ria, Sakshi who assisted me with the important research on court judgments. Mrs. Geeta and Mrs. Kusum for their support in helping me to complete my dissertation. Shri. Ravi Kumar and Mrs. Rani who helped me with my household responsibilities.
