

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am extremely grateful to Dr Sapna Chadah for the guidance she provided during my research and dissertation writing. Her research experience and strong academic background proved to be invaluable in raising the standard of research and ensuring that it remains focussed. As a consumer of the digital cable services she raised very pertinent issues being faced by the consumer which proved to be of significant help in developing the questionnaire for survey and providing a direction to the research. She was always available on phone or email or whenever a personal guidance was sought from her despite her busy schedule.

I am also grateful to Dr Roma Mitra Debnath who assisted me in putting the questionnaires in a format that they can be processed using the SPSS software she taught in a separate course on 'Research Methods for Social Sciences'. She also assisted significantly in using the software's capabilities in analysing the data.

I feel indebted to Prof Aasha Kapur Mehta for the quality inputs provided by her in the stream 'Research Proposal and Dissertation Writing'. Her painstaking efforts in taking us through past dissertations, highlighting their shortcomings and deficiencies, her inputs on drafting research questions and objectives, in providing us a direction on how to write such dissertations came out handy while finalising this report.

Prof. Rakesh Gupta, Course Director for 39th APPPA, was extremely helpful and supportive throughout my research work, right from choosing the research topic to submission of the dissertation. Sri A. K. Taneja, Sri Manish

Rawat, Sri Bal Krishna and Sri Vinod Kumar Yadav in APPPA office also have my sincerest thanks for the assistance they provided.

I am thankful to District Magistrate, Ghaziabad Shri SVS Ranga Rao, DM Kanpur, Shri Sameer Verma and his OSD Shri Raj Kumar Nigam, DM Unnao Shri Vijay Anand, for facilitating my interactions with the MSOs, LCOs and consumers in their districts and providing relevant information. I would also like to express my sincere thanks to the officials of the Entertainment Tax department esp. in Ghaziabad namely Shri R K Singh, Shri Pankaj Kumar and others, not only for providing the relevant information relating to cable operations but also for the assistance provided in selecting a statistically relevant sample of cable operators and in dividing the DAS area of Ghaziabad into 7 zones for the purposes of consumer survey.

My thanks are also due to Principal Secy Institutional Finance , Govt of UP and his Dy Commissioner, Shri S P Pandey for providing copies of the laws relating to levy of entertainment tax in the State and the current statistical information relating to the number of STBs installed and the Entertainment Tax collections from the 7 areas notified for implementation under Phase-II in UP.

I shall be always indebted to Mrs Supriya Sahu, Joint Secretary (Broadcasting) in the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, not only for sharing insights into the current status of implementation of DAS and enabling access to the information collected by the Ministry from various sources but also encouraging and providing active support in getting the field survey conducted. I am also thankful to Shri K S Rejimon, Director(BPL) and Shri Yogendra Pal, Advisor in MIB for sparing their time and insights for completing this report.

I must also thank representatives of MSOs like Den Networks Ltd and their JVs, Hathway Cable and Datacom Ltd, Siti Cable, representatives of Cable Operators Federation of India, for sharing their perspectives on the issues facing the industry.

I will be failing in my duty if I don't put on record the tremendous assistance and support I received from the officials of Broadcast Engineering Consultants India Ltd esp the CMD Shri K Subramanian, Director Shri George Kuruvilla, Advisor Shri Y K Sharma, and Shri Pankaj for facilitating the conduct of the survey and data entry by providing manpower and access to their facilities and resources.

My thanks are also due to Shri N Parmeshwaran, Principal Advisor, TRAI for sharing his insights and relevant information for the purposes of this study.

Lastly I would like to thank my wife Paridhi for bearing with me during this research work. As an alert and aware consumer she drew my attention to relevant aspects from the point of view of consumer. I would also like to thank my daughters Arshiya and Simran who were very happy to see me in the role of a student and researcher, took pleasure in monitoring my progress and kept on goading me to produce a quality report.

Arvind Kumar
