

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to place on record my sincere thanks to the Railway Administration and Indian Institute of Public Administration (IIPA) for providing me an opportunity to take up this study. My guide, Prof. Aasha Kapur Mehta under whose supervision this study was undertaken for her constant inspiration, devoting her valuable time and for steering me along the course which was instrumental in timely completion and structured presentation. I express my gratitude to the Programme Director Shri Pranab Banerjee for a sustained happy, focused learning environment and encouragement and for extending centres support for this study.

I am grateful to JS Agriculture, Shri R.K. Tiwari, the officials of the Ministry of Agriculture, their representatives in Rajasthan for sharing valuable data about agricultural insurance.

I would like to specially thank Shri H.P. Verma, ex. Chief Director and present consultant to Ministry of Agriculture and Shri Sunil Kumar, Asstt. Director (Credit) for providing me with operating instructions, data and other documents and related papers which were referred to for this study and most of all for patiently giving me a hearing and updating me on the relevant concepts. They also facilitated my meeting with officers of various Private insurance companies for discussions and interviews.

I am grateful to Mr. K.N. Rao, Dy. General Manager, Agricultural Insurance Company of India Ltd (AIC), New Delhi, for his support in primary data collection, providing valuable articles and helpful suggestions in the course of the study.

My special thanks to Shri Aditya Jain, Associate Vice President, ICICI Lombard, Shri K. Gopinath, Head Rural & Cooperatives and Shri Kunal Soni, Chief Manager, Agriculture Insurance, IFFCO-Tokio for providing material, sparing their valuable time and helping me to crystallize my thoughts.

I wish to acknowledge that in completing this project I had full support of APPPA office and IIPA library staff who provided all possible help as and when asked for.

Finally, I would like to place on record the help rendered by Mrs. Chander Juneja, SSO, Northern Railway in preparing the final computer script.

I have stolen some precious moments from the time that belonged to my children Shivam and Srijita while they were on vacation from hostel, however, they on their part have been not only considerate but encouraging and this inveigled me to do my best.
