

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the outset, I convey my sincere thanks to the Central Bureau of Investigation for deputing me to attend this course - Advanced Professional Programme in Public Administration. I am extremely grateful to Dr. Lokendra Malik, who has provided valuable suggestions and able guidance during the preparation of this dissertation. I am also very thankful to Dr. Rakesh Hooja, Director IIPA, Professor R.K. Barik, Programme Director and Dr. Sachin Chowdhary, Co-Programme Director for giving me a lot of encouragement which has kept me in high spirits throughout the course and while writing this dissertation.

I express my gratitude to Director, Central Bureau of Investigation for sparing me to attend this course in spite of enormous work pressure of important investigations with very tight targets in the organisation. My sincere thanks are due to the faculty members, library staff and administrative officials of IIPA for their help and support throughout the course.

My thanks are also due to several participants of 35th APPPA for providing all necessary inputs about the Course without any hesitation throughout the Course and also encouraging me to opt for this course. My sincere thanks also go to the co-participants of 36th APPPA for giving valuable suggestions and required assistance during the preparation of this dissertation.

Last but not the least, I express my gratitude to Mrs. Vani Awasthy for showing forbearance towards me during the preparation of this dissertation and to Ms. Bhoomika Awasthy, my daughter, for doing major part of typing and editing of this Dissertation.

(H. C. Awasthy)