

Question 1

Question text

Dash Boards & Integrated Command Centres in Federal Structure of Governance, are important because

Select one:

- a. Actionable inputs are provided by the Dashboards and KPIs and the actions are controlled by the Integrated Command Centre.
- b. The efficiency and effectiveness of governance in such scenarios are dependent on a well-thought system which combines technologies, processes and people.
- c. Size of schemes is very large, it cuts across a very complex structure from centre to state to district and villages, similarly complex stakeholders and beneficiary structure.
- d. All of the above

Question 2

Question text

The Integrated Command and Control Center (ICCC) acts as the “nerve center” for which of the following:

Select one:

- a. operations management
- b. disaster management
- c. Both a and b
- d. Neither a nor b

Question 3

Question text

Which of the following is NOT a key feature of the DISHA dashboard?

Select one:

- a. Key KPIs in one place
- b. CAA data
- c. No data log
- d. Ability to compare geographies

Previous page