

Interpersonal Styles: FIRO-B

Q1: Meaning of FIRO-B is:

- a. Fundamental Interpersonal Relationship Orientation-Basic
- b. Fundamental Interpersonal Relationship Orientation-Behaviour
- c. Focused Interpersonal Relationship Orientation-Basic
- d. Focused Interpersonal Relationship Orientation-Behaviour

Ans: b

Q2: Which of the following is not true?

- a. The concept of FIRO-B was given by Will Shutz
- b. There are three needs in FIRO-B
- c. There are two dimensions i.e. expressed and wanted in it
- d. None of the above

Ans: d

Q3: Association, Attention & Interaction are related with which of the following needs:

- a. Need for Control
- b. Need for Inclusion
- c. Need for Affection
- d. Wanted need for Affection

Ans: b

A4: A person with_____would make an effort to include others in his/her activities.

- a. High Expressed need for inclusion
- b. Low wanted need for inclusion
- c. High Expressed need for affection
- d. High Expressed need for control

Q5: A person with_____is considered as confrontational, independent and difficult:

- a. High wanted need for control
- b. Low wanted need for control
- c. High expressed need for control
- d. High expressed need for control

Ans: b