

Question 1

Question text

During the "female" phase (1920-present) of feminism, women

Select one:

- a. are increasingly focused on uncovering misogyny in male-authored texts
- b. focus on women's texts and women
- c. have largely given up writing true literature
- d. have looked back to the "feminine" past but put a modern spin on it

Question 2

Question text

During the "feminine" phase (1840-80) of feminism, women

Select one:

- a. imitated the dominant tradition in writing
- b. advocated minority rights and protested
- c. focused on women's texts and women as opposed to uncovering misogyny (hatred of women) in male-authored texts
- d. carried out armed insurrections against men

Question 3

Question text

During the "feminist" phase (1880-1920) of feminism, women

Select one:

- a. gave up on equal rights
- b. advocated for minority rights and protested
- c. led the repeal of Prohibition
- d. all of the above

Question 4

Question text

Eco Feminism

Select one:

- a. Is a correlation between the destruction of the planet

- b. Exploitation of women worldwide by the patriarchy
- c. Both
- d. None

Previous page

Question 5

Question text

Feminism mainly focuses on _____

Select one:

- a. Gender equality
- b. Women liberation
- c. Both
- d. None

Question 6

Question text

Feminism is a.....

Select one:

- a. Is a complex notion
- b. Ethnic identities
- c. Static notion
- d. None

Question 7

Question text

Key principles of feminist practice are _____

Select one:

- a. Patriarchal assumptions
- b. Women's broader experiences
- c. feminist framework
- d. all above

Question 8

Question text

Radical Feminism should be ‘turned up’ on all forms of gender expression

Select one:

- a. Androgyny,
- b. Femininity
- c. Masculinity
- d. Multiple form of gender expression

Question 9

Question text

Third-wave feminism seeks to include

Select one:

- a. wage-earners
- b. white, upper-class women
- c. lower-class, Third-world women
- d. only racial minorities

Question 10

Question text

What is Liberal Feminism?

Select one:

- a. Traditional perspective
- b. A belief
- c. Contemporary conceptualizations of women
- d. none