

Quiz questions for Gender Budgeting (highlight the answers)

1. Gender Budgeting was introduced as a _____
 - a. Budgetary practices
 - b. Budget statement
 - c. Budget scheme
 - d. Budget policy
2. When Gender Budgeting was introduced?
 - a. 2008
 - b. 2001
 - c. 2005-06
 - d. 2005
3. Budget is subject to audit?
 - a. Yes
 - b. No
4. Why was gender budgeting introduced ?
 - a. It is most important for gender equality
 - b. No policy will work without money
 - c. Govt. budget can be a powerful tool in transforming our country
 - d. Both B and C
5. Why is gender budgeting necessary?
 - a. it is an achievement of human development
 - b. it empowers women and girl
 - c. for sustainable growth of the economy and society
 - d. all above
6. Gender budgeting can encourage _____
 - a. transparency
 - b. accountability
 - c. participation
 - d. all above
7. Who should be involve in gender budgeting?
 - a. women organization
 - b. government officials and NGO's
 - c. academia and donor community
 - d. all above
8. Does gender budgeting focus only on women?
 - a. Yes
 - b. No
9. Components of the budget are contingency fund and _____
 - a. The consolidated fund

- b. The public account
- c. None
- d.Both a and b

What do you understand by Gender budgeting in india and around the world? How does it work .
Write your experience in this .
