

Quiz questions

1. Who gave this famous statement of viewing Adivasi problems that “Tribal Problem should be viewed in their own context as the tribal economy cannot be separated from culture disposition and sovereignty?”
 - a. Jawaharlal Nehru
 - b. G.S Ghurve
 - c. Elvin
 - d. Gandhi
2. Who introduced Pro- Adivasi development policy?
 - a. Jawaharlal Nehru
 - b. Elwin
 - c. A V Thakkar
 - d. Jawaharlal Nehru and Elvin both
3. The market was substantial means of bridging the gap between the Adivasis subsistence economy with national economy
 - a. Yes
 - b. No
4. Nehru’s vision of development was centered on centered on eradication of poverty, ignorance, diseases and inequalities of opportunities. Can we say this is an effective approach for the development of the entire nation?
 - a. Yes
 - b. No
5. Elwin’s development approach was well known as ‘leave them alone’, ‘national park’ or ‘isolationist’ approach. On this can we say that this is a separate development approach for the Adivasis, who were the most vulnerable population in India?
 - a. Yes
 - b. No
6. Nehru’s five fundamental principles on Adivasi development known as _____
 - a. Panchsheel
 - b. Development policy
 - c. Adivasis schemes
 - d. principles for Adivasi

7. Introducing modern technology for maximization of production in both the industrial and agriculture sectors are good for Adivasis in more productive activities was the only decisive way to their development

- a. True
- b. False

8. Elwin's Adivasi development approach has the capacity to establish Adivasis rights over 'jal-jamin-jangal'.

- a. Right
- b. Wrong

9. Describe the Objectives of Tribal Development Approach

- a. To reduce the poverty and unemployment
- b. To eradicate the exploitation and develop the remote areas
- c. To provide physical and financial security
- d. All above

10. Promotional efforts such as capacity building, exposure visits, training, developing literature, sensitization programmes etc are the part of the Tribal Development approach?

- a. True
- b. False